SECTIONALISM DISCUSSED

BELLE GLADE — The existing sectionalism between north and south Florida, working to the detriment of the solution of statewide problems, will have to be remedied by the people, State Rep. C. F. Bryant told the Lions Club luncheon meeting Wednesday.

Speaking of the vast resources and increasing population of Florida, Bryant, former Speaker of the House and probable gubernatorial candidate said that differences between the sections were of deep concern to him.

Won't Relinquish Yet the northern part won't relinquish its power until it has confidence that "the great southern section" would do right by the other half of the state, Bryant said. "Those here know that the south is entitled to more, but the north feels it will be crushed by the growing south section if it lets go," he told its listeners.

By electing the "proper people," residents in both sections can "join hands together in confidence and trust — as a sovereign state as it should be, building for a great future we all can share."

Rep. Emmett Roberts introduced Bryant, from Marion County, as "the best student of government in Florida," citing the confidence other members of the House have in the former speaker, and his recognition as outstanding legislator by vote of his fellow representatives and the legislative press.

No Nog For Yule Is Pahokee City Decree

PAHOKEE — The traditional Christmas egg-nog will be absent at City Hall this year. City Council voted Monday night in the wake of a rousing temperance sermon in the Methodist pulpit Sunday.

Rev. A. D. Houghlin quoted Sunday from last week's Life Magazine editorial on the growing preference of some groups to eschew Christmas bibbing in favor of a donation to charity, and added other facts and figures on temperance.

Whereupon, Monday night, when Council President Loren Meredith brought the matter up, Councilmen R. B. Simonson, James Harry Wilkinson, Jr., and Blanche Armstrong voted to outlaw the egg-nog. Councilman George H. Tucker, Jr. was not present for the Monday night session.

The City Hall Christmas party in the past has been a gift exchange and mixing of the traditional egg-nog for city employees and their wives. At local businessmen has been the egg-nog donor for the annual shog get-together after office hours.

The party action came now in the business-filled meeting. Council earlier heard once again from the Orange State Oil Co. in the person of L. C. Waller and Attorney Henry Lillenthal, of West Palm Beach.

This time the company came before the city body with the request that land it has under option to erect the trust store at Farmer's Mkt. Rd. and E. Main St. be rezoned entirely industrial, instead of part agricultural and part industrial as it is under the present zoning ordinance.

Councilman Simonson took this occasion to ask whether the proposed site is not large enough to accommodate a bulk plant as well. Simonson said that the people who opposed Council's rezoning of downtown property to permit Orange State to erect a new bulk plant were now after Council to see that the plant be put out in the industrial property. Darned if I don't think I agree with them," he added.

Councilman Meredith asked Waller what happened to the plans for the new bulk plant in town. Waller replied that the company had put the $50,000 set aside for the plant to other uses when it feared the rezoning would not take place.

After further discussion with Council, City Clerk Dorothy Graham wrote to (Continued on Page 8)

Negro Police Needed In BG

BELLE GLADE — The need for a policeman in colored town to replace the late Patrolman Isaac Davis, and the means to do so, were major discussion topics at City Commission meeting Wednesday night, and the matter will come up again tonight.

In an adjourned meeting, adjourned again until this evening, Commissioners heard E. M. Taylor request that the situation in colored town be remedied, with street language and the general atmosphere in a poor state.

Commissioners Marvin Unwin and J. H. Livingston, Jr. pointed out that the low pay scale excludes men with the qualifications needed to police the area. Livingston said that the situation is now an emergency, what with increased knife-cutting, and abusive language on the streets.

Davis Missed He asked Police Chief Charles Goodlett whether he thought Davis' death had anything to do with the change Goodlett said that Davis "was a man who commanded respect ... it takes two or three years' experience to get a salary increase would help get the right man."

Taylor noted that "Officers on foot do more than in patrol cars."

The subject will be taken up again tonight, when City Manager Clarence Robinson and the Civil Service Board have reviewed the low-grade pay scale. Taylor said there is some way an increase can be put into effect. (Continued on Page 8)

HOW TO PACK HOLIDAY SHIPMENTS

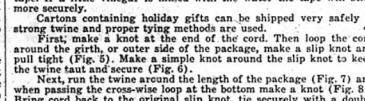

1. Use sound, sturdy container large enough to provide 2" clearance all around.

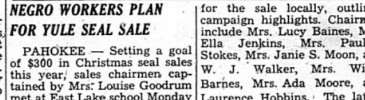

2. Use newspaper to prepare cushioning. Do not ball or roll, instead tear into 2" strips and then fluff.

3. Insert 2" bottom layer, then gift. Stuff 2" on sides and top—firm—but not too tight.

4. Use several gifts, use big enough box to also provide sufficient cushioning between each one.

5. Double pack very fragile gifts—pack, as in 3, in smaller box, then pack same way in second container.

NOTE: As precaution, before closing, enclose extra "To" and "From" address label. Free labels available from Railway Express.

For the Christmas shopper who is planning to send gifts to friends and relatives, careful packing is just one step in preparing holiday shipments for safe and sure arrival. After gifts are properly packed, the package or carton must be securely closed or held together.

As shown here, taping or tying, or both can be used. Unmanned tapes, however, is preferable for shipments going by express. Sealed express packages do not involve extra charges or require opening for inspection. The tape, sufficiently wide, can be moistened with a damp sponge, cloth or paper napkin. Soaking will impair the adhesive quality of the tape. If a little vinegar is mixed with the water the tape will stick more securely.

Cartons containing holiday gifts can be shipped very safely if strong twine and proper tying methods are used. First, make a knot at the end of the cord. Then loop the cord around the girth, or outer side of the package, make a slip knot and pull tight (Fig. 5). Make a simple knot around the slip knot to keep the twine taut and secure (Fig. 6). Next, run the twine around the length of the package (Fig. 7) and when passing the twine loop at the bottom make a knot (Fig. 8). Bring cord back to the original slip knot, tie securely with a double knot (Fig. 9) and—for additional safety repeat the process so that the package will be double tied.

While these procedures will work in most instances, special sizes or shapes of types of gifts may require additional or slightly different methods. If in doubt or in need of special advice the local railway express office is a good place to call or visit to get help.

Markham - Tedder Nuptials Thanksgiving

In a Thanksgiving afternoon ceremony at Belle Glade First Baptist Church, Miss Bette Ann Markham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Markham, became the bride of Charles Tedder, son of Mrs. Charles Tedder of Jacksonville.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before a background of branched candelabras, palms and tall baskets of white mums and gladioli by Rev. U. W. Malcolm, pastor of the church. Mrs. Z. T. Ingram, organist, played traditional wedding music, and Mrs. U. W. Malcolm was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of bridal satin and imported French Chantilly lace with a triple tier redingote effect falling into a chapel train. The scoop neckline of the gown was outlined with an applique of lace flowers, and the long tight sleeves came to a point at the wrist. With it she wore a finger tip veil of illusion falling from a lace shell cap trimmed with twisted pearls. She carried a white lace covered Bible with a double row of white center and ribbon streamers.

Miss Dorothy Mobley was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Clyde Clayton and Miss Beverly Phelan. Miss Carolyn Markham and Miss Cherry Bridges, cousins of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. They all wore identical gowns of royal green taffeta, street length, princess style, with scoop necklines. With them they wore matching shoes and hats. The maid of honor and bridesmaids carried bouquets of white mums with matching ribbons, while the junior bridesmaids' bouquets were of yellow mums.

Prof. Paul M. Tedder of the University of Florida faculty was his brother's best man and usher were Francis W. Cross, Jr., L. V. McClelland of Canal Point, Eddie Schoepel and Clyde Clayton. The bride's mother wore a street length frock of dusty rose lace with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the recreation hall of the church. Mrs. Imogene Fontaine and Mrs. L. V. McClelland served at the punch bowl while Mrs. Jack Little had charge of the bride's book. Mrs. Malcolm cut the cake, and Mrs. S. M. McAllister and Mrs. Skippy Cotton assisted in serving.

For a wedding trip in Florida, the bride chose a tailored suit of charcoal gray, accented with gold and gray scarf, gold hat and black accessories. The couple will make their home at the Royal Palm Way Apartments in Chosen on their return.

Out-of-town guests included Prof. and Mrs. Paul Tedder, Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tedder, West Palm Beach; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Speer, Pahokee; Mr. and Mrs. L. V. McClelland, and Mrs. Francis W. Cross, Jr., of Canal Point.

KEY - CROSS

J. M. Cross of Chosen and Mrs. W. H. Key, Pahokee, were married in Tampa, at 7 p.m. Thanksgiving Day, by her brother-in-law, Rev. F. L. Cross.

Mr. Cross, who is a building contractor, has lived in the Glades area for several years. Mrs. Cross is a long-time Pahokee resident, having served as caterer for the Rotary Club for 24 years.

Swedish Tea Ring

Slices of warm Swedish Tea Ring teamed with hot spiced tea or coffee lend a festive air to holiday entertaining.

Make your holiday baking a "foreign affair" with a Swedish Tea Ring.

This sweet yeast dough coffee cake is filled with spicy cinnamon sugar and topped with confectioners' sugar icing after baking. "Fancy" this bread further by arranging chopped nuts and Christmas-like candied cherries and citron or angelica over the icing.

Serve Swedish Tea Ring on Christmas morning as a special family treat. Or, feature fresh, warm slices anytime during the holidays when you're serving coffee or spiced tea to guests. Home-baked products add a note of hospitality.

Your baker's coffee rings, cookies and pastries for the Christmas season also ring an inviting note. So, when you want to serve something sweet and festive but haven't the time to "do-it-yourself," take a look at your baker's shelves.

Baked goods you buy, like those you make yourself, contain enriched flour for added nutritional value. Enriched flour provides extra amounts of three essential B vitamins and food iron at no extra cost.

SWEDISH TEA RING

- 1 package yeast, compressed or dry
- 1 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1 cup flour. Add softened yeast and egg. Beat well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl, cover and let rise until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours). Punch down. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Roll out to rectangular sheet about 12 inches long and 6 inches wide.

GLADES JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER

Hannukah: (From I Maccabees) "It was on the fifteenth day of the month of Kislev, that the messengers of King Antiochus set up an idol on the altar of God, and had incense burnt in its honor. And they gave orders that the people of Judea should forsake the law and the covenant, profane the Sabbath and the sanctuary. And many chose rather to die than to forsake the covenant. And the king's officers came to the city of Modin, and said to Mattathias, the son of John, the son of Simon the Hasmonian, a priest of the sons of Joseph who dwelt in Modin: Thou art a great man and strengthened with sons and brethren in this city. Come, then, and fulfill the king's command as all the heathen have done, and the men of Judah and they that remain in Jerusalem. And thou shalt be in the number of the king's friends. But Mattathias answered and spoke with a loud voice: Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him and fall away each one from the religion of his fathers, yet will I and my sons and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers. God forbid that we should forsake the Law to depart from our faith either to the right hand or to the left. And when in the sight of all the Jews came to sacrifice to the idol, Mattathias was inflamed with zeal, neither could he forbear to show his anger, and he slew him, and also the king's officer, and the altar he pulled down. And Mattathias fled throughout the city with a loud voice saying: Whosoever is zealous of the law and maintaineth the covenant, let him follow me. So he and his sons and they went about pulling down the heathen altars, and they rescued the law out of the hands of the Gentiles."

Commissioners granted a club liquor license to the most outstanding work of students accomplished before fair time could be exhibited. Schools from Monroe, Havana and other cities around the lake to Canal Point will be contacted and urged to enter exhibits.

Bond Discussion

In a discussion of the validation of the $200,000 recreation and community betterment bond issue, City Attorney Claude Jones and Commissioners assured questioners from the audience that the bonds will only be sold as needed, and that the bonds can never become a lien against property owners of the city. Revenue bonds such as these in no way affect property owners, it was pointed out. The city plans to guarantee $10,000 of its annual Florida Power & Light Co. rebate to pay off the bonds.

Money already raised for the swimming pool will go into a fund which the bond money will be added, Commissioners said. It was explained that the city's next step will be to employ a fiscal agent, after which a bond validation ordinance is drawn. The ordinance goes to circuit court for thorough inspection by the court. This affords another guarantee of no infringement against property owners, the city attorney said.

Other Options

Among other actions, Commissioners accepted the bid of the Howe Co., Anderson, Ind., and the Ford Co. for new fire equipment and chassis; and they agreed to write a letter to Florida Power & Light on the installation of flood lights at the loading ramp and at the parking area at the Country Club, locations to be determined by the city manager and chief of police.

Alumni Game Is On Tonight

BELLE GLADE — Kickoff time for the second annual alumni football game between Belle Glade and Clewiston tonight will be at 8:15 at Clewiston.

Belle Glade has added many younger men to its team while some of the "older" married men such as Lebron Williams, Lewis Lowery, Bozo Greer, and Eddie Crosby have decided that football is a younger man's game and have retired to the sidelines. Even without these men, Belle Glade will be well represented with such players as Buddy Barron, Perry Rigdon and Pony Phillips. The condition of the team will be much improved over last year, reports have it.

Farmer QB

Running the team from quarterback will be Fred Farmer. He is a converted guard, but has shown capability as a ball handler. The backfield will have the edge in experience, and will include the following players: left halfback, C. B. McCloud (155 lbs.); Eddie Klanjac (180); Junior Meadows (150); right halfback, Buddy Barron (160); Bell Mathis (189); Douglas Congleton (150); Roy Caldwell (150); fullback, Roger Cunningham (173); and Elmer Kirshman (130).

The line will be: end, Hubert Anderson (175); C. W. Casper (170); Lewis Kiser (175); Calvin Mizell (135); Pony Phillips (215); and Ralph Prescott (140); center, Elmer Kirshman (130); Left Tackle, 190; Perry Rigdon (215); and Carl Dean (165); guards, Peabody Austin (150); and Glenn Martin (160); and Elmer Kirshman (130).

Coach Calvin Peacock has not announced a starting lineup, but plans to use two offensive backs and will center the attack around passes. He has promised Clewiston a tough game, to average last year's 13-12 defeat.

The spot-check local residents and tourists alike—who failed to produce evidence of their right to drive were given summonses to court in West Palm Beach, or put up $30 bond on the spot, Trooper Charles McWilliams reported.

CHAPTER ?? IN CLINIC STORY

Another chapter in the seemingly never-ending story of struggle for Belle Glade and Pahokee to get their health centers built was written this week. The County Commission heard Monday that plans for the two projects were ready, and voted to issue a call for bids. Pahokee's health center bid call is the second. First bids several months ago were considerably higher than the city, county, and federal funds available.

Concerning construction of the new National Guard Armory at Belle Glade, the commission learned this week that U.S. Senators George Smathers and Spessard Holland and Congressman Paul Rogers, are attempting to get an early release of federal funds for the armory. The project hit a bottleneck last month when it was learned that federal funds would not be available at this time. The Commission sought the help of Florida's congressional delegation to try to get a release of the federal grant.

the company and ask immediate demolition of the broken-down Orange State facilities now standing, and clearance of the site for the proposed bulk plant. If work has not begun within 60 days, the city will start condemnation proceedings. Council agreed.

Meanwhile, Dec. 19 was set as the date for a public hearing on whether Council will rezone the new property under consideration for the truck stop, for the city company's convenience.

Leland Keen appeared to make a final report on the swimming pool. He thanked Council for its cooperation for the years he has operated the pool, and said he would not be a candidate for the position next year. Having had no vacation in 10 years, he said, he planned to take his family vacationing next summer. He reported a $405.80 profit on the pool concessions, after deduction of $30 for supplies stolen from the berries there during the summer.

In five years, Keen estimated, 70,000-75,000 persons have used the pool with no serious accidents occurring. Council gave Keen a vote of thanks and instructed the clerk to write him a letter of appreciation.

Jeff Barwick, of Boy Scout Troop 28, presented Council with a check for $100 as the troop's payment toward the new Scout headquarters at City Park. Scoutmaster Louis F. Mims and members of the troop appeared in a body for the presentation. Meredith thanked the troop and pointed out that Council is wholeheartedly behind the Scout movement.

Councilman Armstrong suggested that the city and the Chamber of Commerce get together to plan a library, civic meeting place, and C-C office in a new building. She noted that space is available on the new addition to the Water Works property, and that both the Chamber and the BPW have been accumulating funds toward building a joint library. C. C. M. Graham was instructed to write to the C and C and request the two bodies get together at the Dec. 12 Council meeting.

Among other actions, Council WENT AROUND and around with F. M. Shaughnessy, of Glades Equipment Co., Inc. on his bid on a new city tractor, motor for $2575 total, $215 above city budget, finally decided to buy the tractor under the budget and purchase the mower from the "maintenance and equipment" fund; HEARD Hilton Jones, of the harvesters and contractors' committee, who want to know what the city plans to do about a permanent loading zone, and referred the matter back to the committee for recommendations, to be discussed at a meeting to-night at 8 at City Hall.

ORAYED more light at City Park, upon Mrs. Armstrong's request that two street lights be placed there;

HEARD a report that the Garden Club will begin work next week on the new roadside park on E. Main St., and that the Club is asking lumber merchants to make and donate tables and benches.

The only effect of music on a reptile is to arouse its curiosity. It protrudes its head from its burrow merely to see what the "noise" is. The trickery of traditional "snake - charmers" consists in using tamed snakes.
